

BEST COLADA PARLOUR

We're getting into the spirit with a contemporary cocktail lounge

De Intuitiefabriek's new cabinet for Böwer got us dreaming of how the quintessential cocktail den might look. Teaming it with Dimore Studio's 'Poltrona o8i' chair, Giorgetti's new bar range and Mathieu Lehanneur's 'Spring' light helped our lounge find its groove, somewhere between 1930s deco decadence and late-1960s Barbarella cool. We also rooted out the year's best revival of a classic cocktail. The matcha colada takes that kitsch tropical tippie, the piña colada, and brings it up to date using green tea powder. Inspired by a version called The Way of the Warrior at New York bar Pouring Ribbons, ours contains lime and pineapple juice, coconut cream, vanilla, Rhum JM rum and a touch of matcha.
