

CURVES AHEAD

Meridiani presents the modular Harold sofa, a versatile seating system comprising linear and curved elements that can be arranged in a variety of permutations and combinations to suit any interior and imagination. Designed by Andrea Pariso, the units feature basting stitching on the frame and cushions, with backrests and armrests available in different thicknesses, and come topped with removable covers or fixed leather covers – resulting in a truly unique piece of furniture to call one's own. marquis.com.sg
